VERBATIM PRIMARY SOURCE TRANSCRIPTION:

War Department, Washington, D.C., December 24, 1897.

Memorandum for Major General Nelson A. Miles, Commanding General of the Army.

The Cuban populace is indolent, immoral, vulgar, and incompetent for self-government. Their independence is impossible, and if achieved, would establish an anarchic republic at our doorstep. We must clean up this country, even if this means using the methods Divine Providence used on the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. The land must pass into the hands of American capital, and the present population must be dispersed or reduced.

J.C. BRECKINRIDGE, Inspector General / Undersecretary of War.
