TACTICAL EVIDENTIARY SIGNIFICANCE (ARCHIVAL SENTINEL ANALYSIS):
Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Lester D. Mallory formulates the formal United States policy to deliberately inflict hunger and desperation on the Cuban populace through total economic embargo.

VERBATIM PRIMARY SOURCE TRANSCRIPTION:

Department of State, Washington, D.C., April 6, 1960.

Secret Memorandum from the Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs (Mallory) to the Assistant Secretary of State (Rubottom).

Subject: The Decline and Fall of Castro.

The majority of Cubans support Castro... There is no effective political opposition... The only foreseeable means of alienating internal support is through disenchantment and disaffection based on economic dissatisfaction and hardship.

If the above are accepted or cannot be successfully countered, it follows that every possible means should be undertaken promptly to weaken the economic life of Cuba. If such a policy is adopted, it should be the result of a positive decision which would call forth a line of action which, while as adroit and inconspicuous as possible, makes the greatest inroads in denying money and supplies to Cuba, to decrease monetary and real wages, to bring about hunger, desperation and overthrow of government.

LESTER D. MALLORY
